BRUT RESERVE ROSÉ EXTENDED TIRAGE

Brut Reserve Rosé Extended tirage is a multi-vintage blend of two-thirds Pinot Noir and one-third Chardonnay, with a splash of Pinot Meunier red wine added to the blend to enhance color, body and flavor.

METHOD: Brut Reserve Rosé Extended tirage is an assemblage (blend) of up to 30 different blending components from 20 different vineyard locations. Its beautiful pink salmon tint comes from a small amount of Pinot Noir fruit. To further enrich our classic Brut Reserve Rosé, we age some of the base wine in French oak barrels prior to the secondary fermentation in bottle. The final blend typically spends a minimum of three years en tirage after secondary bottle fermentation. But for this special “extended tirage” edition, the wine was aged 5½ years in bottle before the final disgorging step.

PROFILE: With a lovely pink salmon color, our Brut Reserve Rosé Extended tirage sports fresh, fragrant, strawberry jam, cranberry jelly, elderberry syrup and dark plum aromas.

OCCASION: An extraordinarily versatile food wine, Brut Reserve Rosé Extended Tirage is especially delicious with salmon and poultry. Enjoy this very lovingly created wine over a romantic dinner for two.
